What Makes Your Heart Grow?

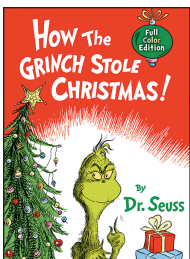

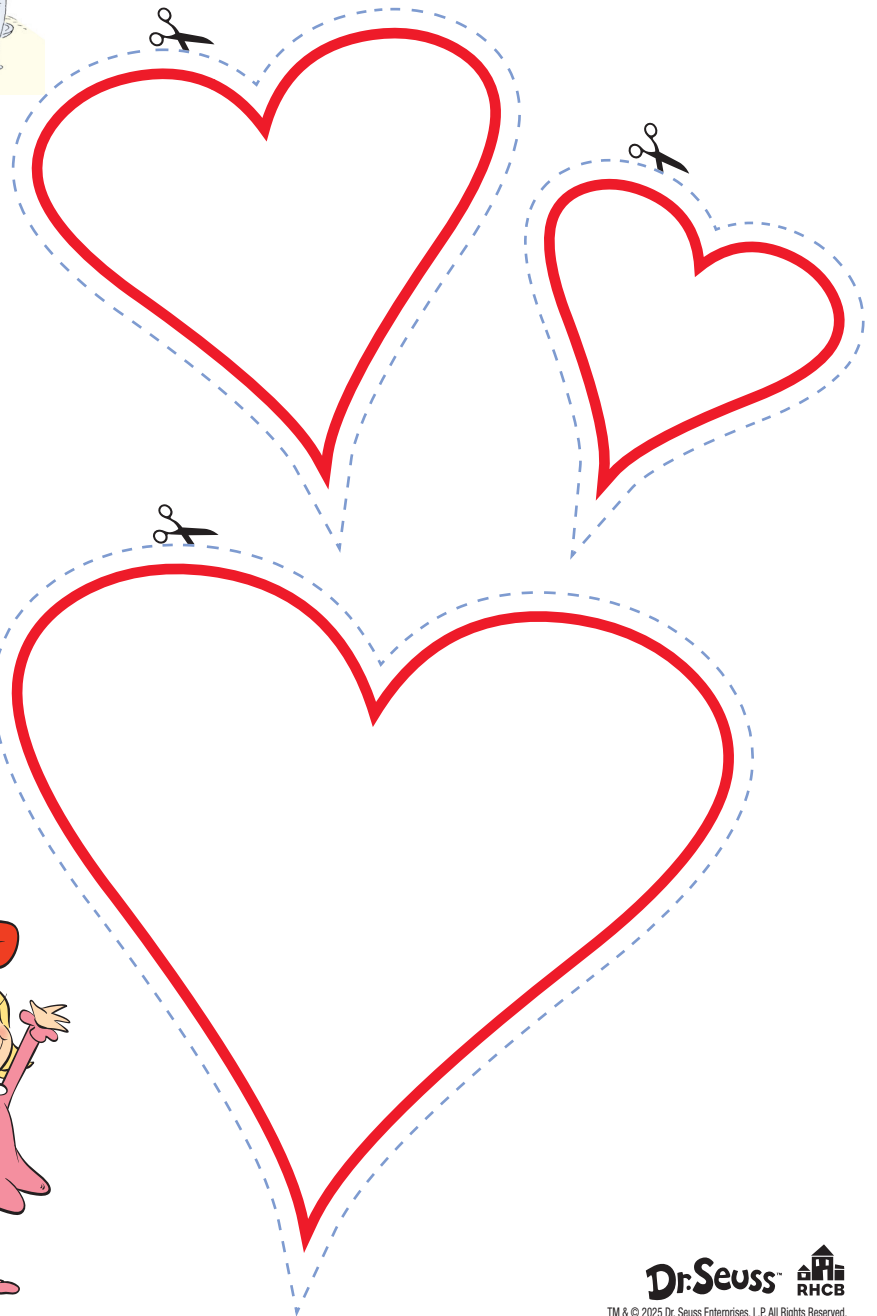

A gratitude activity inspired by the Grinch!

After the Grinch discovered the true meaning of Christmas, something amazing happened: his heart grew three sizes! But did you know. . . it only stays that big when we share kindness, joy, and gratitude?

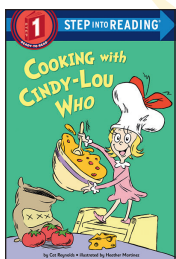

Your mission:

1. Look at the three hearts below: small, medium, and large. Think about things that make you feel happy, thankful, or full of love. (Like your family, a favorite holiday tradition, a pet, or helping a friend!)
2. Write or draw one of those things inside each heart.
3. When you're done, ask a grown-up to help you cut out your hearts.
4. Hang them up in your home to remind yourself what really matters during the holidays!
