while Jack and Annie track the facts!

All aboard and full steam ahead!

Jack and Annie have boarded a ship destined to make history—but not in the way the engineers and designers of this world-class ship intended. With more than three-quarters of the passengers perishing only four days after departing, the RMS Titanic has haunted the world as one of the greatest accidents to occur in maritime history. Join this fact tracking mission to learn more about life on the ship, events leading up to the wreck, and the eventual sinking of the famous vessel.

Ship Manifest

The Titanic was a luxury class vessel, setting a new standard for traveling in style and comfort. But despite its glamorous and record-breaking style, the ship also contained a large third-class section, attracting passengers from all walks of life. Can you name the passengers described in the clues below?

There were passengers on the Titanic from at least 33 countries!

More passengers traveled in third class than in second and first classes combined.

1. I was the designer and first passenger to board the ship.

2. I was the youngest passenger on the Titanic at only nine weeks old!

4. I was a science teacher from London who took many notes and later wrote a book about the Titanic!

3. I was one of the richest men in the world at the time and I was on my way home from my honeymoon in Europe and Egypt with my new wife, Madeline.
